

Bruce D. Peterson
Senior Vice President and General Counsel
DTE Energy

Bruce Peterson, 53, is senior vice president and general counsel for DTE Energy (NYSE: DTE), a Detroit-based diversified energy company involved in the development and management of energy-related businesses and services nationwide. Peterson has overall responsibility for the management and direction of the legal affairs of DTE Energy, as well as its regulated utilities, Detroit Edison and MichCon, and its non-regulated companies.

Prior to joining DTE Energy in 2002, Peterson was a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Hunton & Williams, a national law firm specializing in energy industry matters. Peterson spent 14 years with the firm focusing on energy and infrastructure project finance transactions, acquisitions and divestitures, and related contract structuring and regulatory matters. He also served as administrative partner for the firm's project finance, development and leasing team. Previously, he was a Foreign Service Officer of the U.S. Department of State for six years.

Peterson earned a bachelor of arts degree from North Park College and a juris doctor degree from the University of Notre Dame Law School. He completed the Nuclear Reactor Technology Course for Utility Executives at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Peterson is a member of the Board of Directors of the DTE Energy Foundation and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, a member of the Board of Trustees of the Cranbrook Educational Community and a member of the Board of Governors of Cranbrook Institute of Science. He is an adjunct professor at the University of Michigan Law School. He is also a member of the Corporate Counsel Committee of the United Way for Southeastern Michigan and the Legal Committees of the Edison Electric Institute and the American Gas Association.

Biography